What is the lab #? I will pull the notes and let you know if I was the primary or the confirmatory. However, we are all qualified to interpret the GC/MS results.

Hey Kate,

Thanks for the heads up. Mays actually was just advanced to March 8th I think, so you will be getting another one. However, you can't come which is fine. Were you prelim or confirmatory tester? If you were the confirmatory, is the person who did the prelim qualified to do confirmatory testing so they can testify to your results?

As for [REDACTED] that is fine. Thanks.

Cameron
